

FULL DANCE CARD REBATE FOR PROS

To all the Pro level West Coast Swing Dancers...

The event directors for the 2009 TSDA contest coming in late October and early November have put together a very special program just for you.

The details...

Any Pro that fills their competition dance card will receive a rebate of $50.00 from Texas Classic (the cost of your early bird weekend ticket).

Definition of a Pro's dance card...A Pro dancer will have the opportunity at the 2009 TSDA contest to compete with a maximum of seven Am students...

three in the Pro-Am Novice Strictly Swing division, three in the Pro-Am Intermediate Strictly Swing division, and one Am in the Mixed Pro-am Progressive division.

How do you get the rebate?

1. A Pro must dance with seven Am's in the three Pro-Am divisions as described above.

A total of seven dances.

2. Any Pro dancer that fills their dance card and competes will receive a $50.00 rebate.

3. The rebate will be awarded after the competition has been completed. I repeat: The rebate will come as a check in the mail after the contest. The reason, to verify the said Pro has danced in all categories & danced with the specified number of students.

Let's go Pros...get your students on the dance floor.

For more information on the 2009 TSDA contest or this program please visit www.texasclassic.com or contact Robert Nelson at onecolakid@aol.com